

25-28 APRIL 2022

LEAD FACILITATOR

-Executive Director at National Organisation for Women in Sport Physical Activity and Recreation (NOWSPAR)

- Lecturer at University of Zambia and Trustee at Football Rising.

She has over 18 years' experience working with governors of sport associations, leaders of sport for development organisations, and sport policy makers in Southern Africa and in international contexts. Her doctoral research undertaken at the University of Chichester, UK examined the experiences of women sport leaders within the African Union Sports Council.

She serves on various international sport organisation boards and is a member of the international Women's Sports Leadership Academy.

She has extensive experience (over 15 years) delivering leadership development programs for girls and women and expertise including participatory learning, advocacy, and digital storytelling practice and training delivery. She is an Alum of Southern African Regional Centre for Women's Law at University of Zimbabwe and a Vital Voices Lead Fellow.

Her research, teaching and practice is on issues of inequalities within sport and on the use of sport to address societal inequalities.

DR. LOMBE MWAMBWA
ZAMBIA